RE: August Image, LLC v. Charles A. Peralo

Dear Mr. Peralo:

This law firm represents August Image, LLC. We are writing to you because it appears that one or more of our client's copyrighted work (the "Work") was utilized for commercial purposes by Charles A. Peralo without first obtaining or purchasing a license from our client. Such unauthorized use may constitute federal copyright infringement under 17 U.S.C. § 501 in addition to other claims potentially arising under federal law.

This letter is sent pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 408, is for settlement purposes only, and is an attempt to amicably resolve the dispute specified herein prior to initiation of litigation in which damages, costs, and/or injunctive relief will be sought. To the extent we cannot resolve this matter privately, please understand that we intend to pursue this matter in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

August Image, LLC serves as the exclusive licensing agent for numerous professional photographs on behalf of its photographer clients. August is dedicated to representing an elite group of portrait, lifestyle, beauty, and fashion photographers for editorial and commercial licensing. As a result, August has an impressive rights-managed collection that it makes available to approved professional clients on its website (at <https://www.augustimage.com/>).

Copyright infringement deprives professional creatives of much-needed income. Rather than be paid for their work, our clients must instead spend money and time identifying violators and enforcing their intellectual property rights.

To our knowledge, our client did not authorize Charles A. Peralo to use and/or display the Work. Notwithstanding this lack of authorization, we have identified the Work appearing on Charles A. Peralo's website, webpage, and/or social media. A list of each item comprising the Work, together with screenshots of the alleged infringement, is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

A true and correct copy of the Certificate(s) of Registration pertaining to the Work is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

If our client is mistaken or if you¹ believe the Work was previously licensed through our client or some other party, please contact us immediately with evidence of the prior licensing. If we do not hear from you within fourteen (14) days from the date of this letter, we will be forced to assume that the Work was not properly licensed and will take appropriate action to enforce our client’s rights.

If the above-described use of the Work was not properly licensed, I encourage you to discuss the foregoing with your attorney and/or your insurance carrier as copyright infringement is a serious matter that potentially exposes you to substantial damages/attorneys’ fees if we are forced to file a lawsuit on behalf of our client. Keep in mind that attorneys’ fees include those you will incur to mount a defense (if any) and, if the infringement occurred after our client’s registration of the Work, potentially the attorneys’ fees/costs we will incur to pursue the matter (which may be awarded) if our client prevails in court. It is important that you are cognizant of that exposure in deciding how to respond to this letter.

“Insurance carrier” is mentioned above because you may have general liability, property damage, and/or other insurance that provides coverage for the claim here. You should provide a copy of this letter to your insurance carrier (if one exists), notify it of our client’s demand, disclose the identity of such insurer to us, and provide a copy of the subject insurance policy to us. It is important to timely notify such insurer as failure to do so could result in a claim being denied.

Please note that Section 504 of the Copyright Act provides for the recovery of statutory damages (assuming the infringement occurred after our client’s registration of the Work) or (at our client’s election) actual damages plus “any additional profits of the infringer that are attributable to the infringement and are not taken into account in computing the actual damages.” If statutory damages are available, 17 U.S.C. § 504(c)(1) provides our client the right to recover damages (for each work that was infringed) “in a sum of not less than $750 or more than $30,000 as the court considers just.” Further, if the infringement was committed “willfully,” the court may increase the award of statutory damages (for each work that was infringed) “to a sum of not more than $150,000.”

Courts/juries have not hesitated (where appropriate) to impose substantial damages against copyright infringers. See, e.g., Harrington v. Dugar, No. 2:22-cv-08230-HDV-E, 2024 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 155470, *4 (C.D. Cal. Aug. 27, 2024) (following $10,000.00 jury award in single photograph case, awarding $193,032.50 in attorneys’ fees to plaintiff); Corson v. Brown Harris Stevens of the Hamptons, LLC, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 248214, at *8–9 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 24, 2018) (awarding $25,000.00 in statutory damages for infringement of single photograph following non-jury trial); Hargis v. Pacifica Senior Living Mgmt., Ltd. Liab. Co., No. 2:22-cv-06989-MCS-PD, 2024 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 83362 (C.D. Cal. May 7, 2024) (following jury trial, entering $6,300,000 judgment for photographer plaintiff, representing $150,000.00 for each of 42 different photographs); Textil v. Thilikó, LLC, 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 134183 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 2, 2023)

(awarding $450,000.00 in statutory damages to plaintiff in copyright infringement action, representing $30,000.00 for each of 15 photographs at issue).

Please keep in mind that the above cases are provided only as examples of what a court/jury may do in any particular case. They should serve as a reminder that there is a potential for substantial liability under the Copyright Act rather than as a prediction of what a court/jury would do in this matter with the facts at issue here. A court/jury is tasked with awarding an amount that is commensurate with the facts before it, and that amount may be substantially less, equal to, or higher than the award in some other case. This is precisely why you should consult with an attorney to review whether you have any defenses to the claims described herein and what risk you may have in ignoring/litigating the matter.

While this is a serious matter, it is not particularly complex. The utilization of the Work without proper authorization may constitute copyright infringement, and we will either resolve this issue in court (allowing a court to decide the matter) or privately between the parties. To that end, our client proposes to settle this matter as follows:

(1) Payment of Two Hundred Eighty-Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($282,500.00) to our client within fourteen (14) days of the date first written above and

(2) The immediate removal and cessation from any further use of our client's work(s).

Please contact us within the above-stated period to discuss resolution of this matter. If we do not hear from you or are otherwise unable to resolve the matter on amicable terms, please be aware that our client does not shy away from enforcing intellectual property rights in court.

This letter further constitutes a demand that you immediately suspend any document destruction policy and preserve any and all documents (such as e-mails, text messages, social media pages/postings, copies of the work(s) at issue, etc.) that may be relevant to the claims or defenses in a forthcoming lawsuit. Please be aware that a federal court may impose significant sanctions if you fail to preserve relevant documents upon reasonable anticipation of litigation.

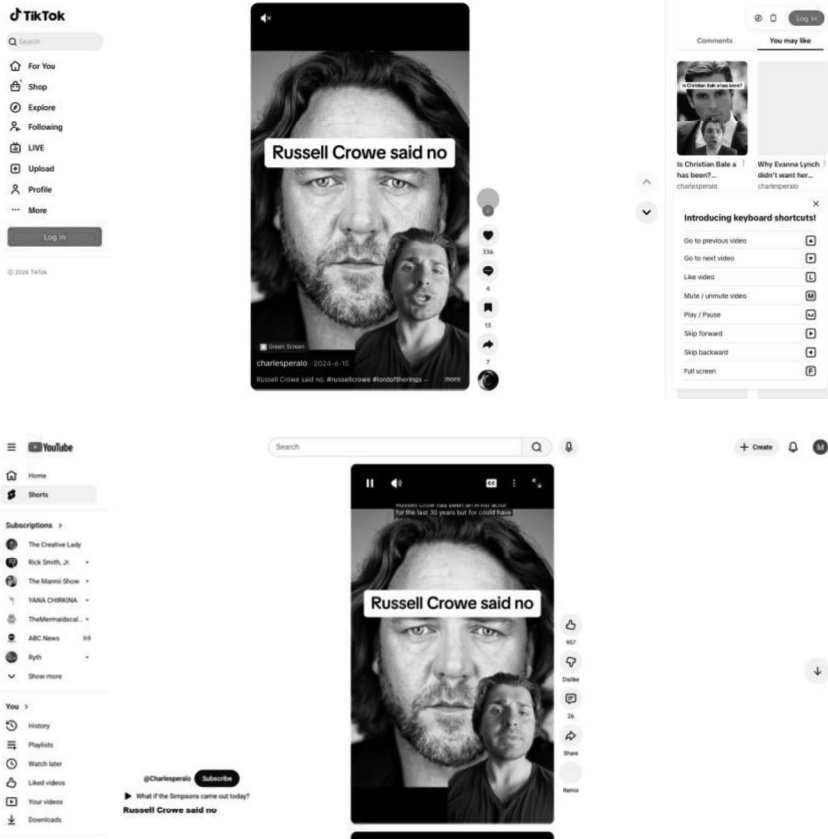

Finally, while ceasing all unlicensed use of the Work is required, please understand that doing so alone is insufficient to end this matter. If you do not contact us to discuss payment for your existing/past use of the Work, our client will likely have no choice but to file a lawsuit wherein all available damages/relief will be sought.

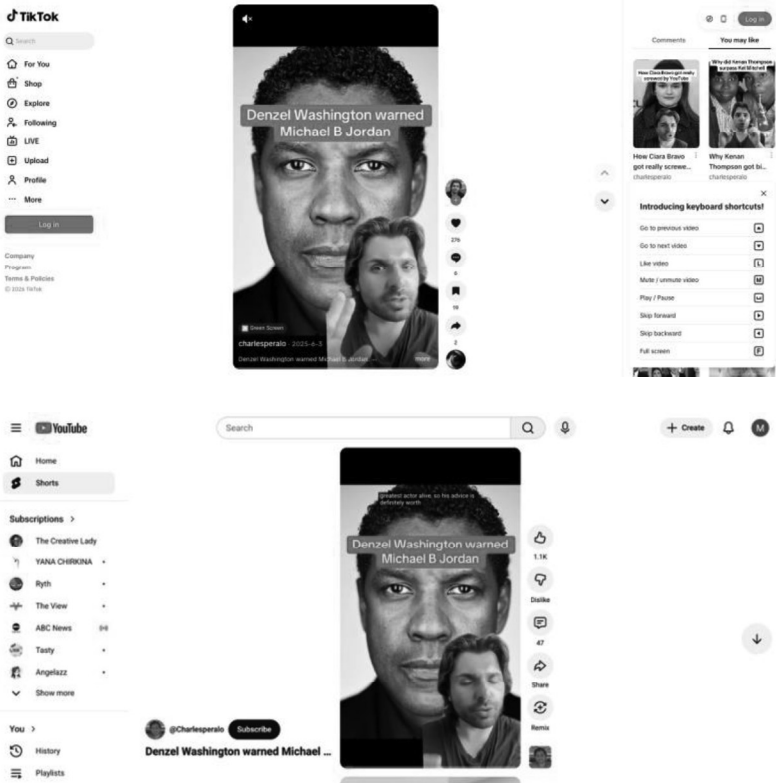

You should give this matter your immediate attention.

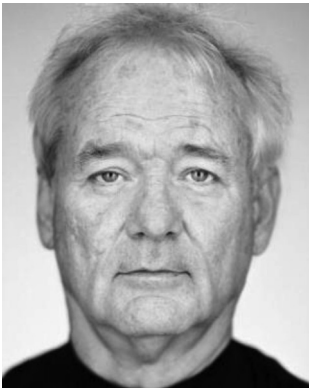

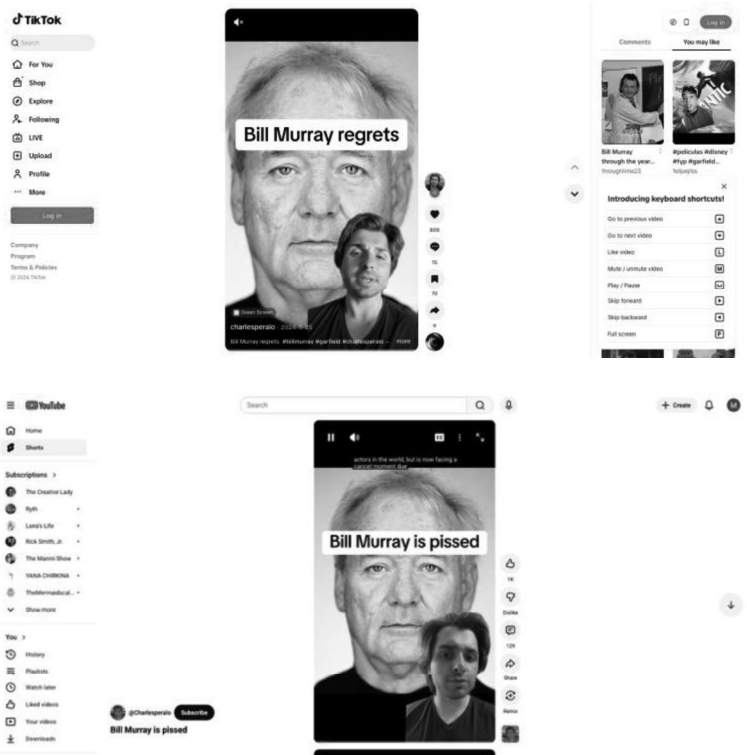

Very truly yours,
Daniel DeSouza, Esq.
For the Firm

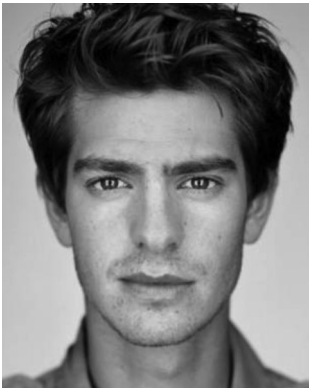

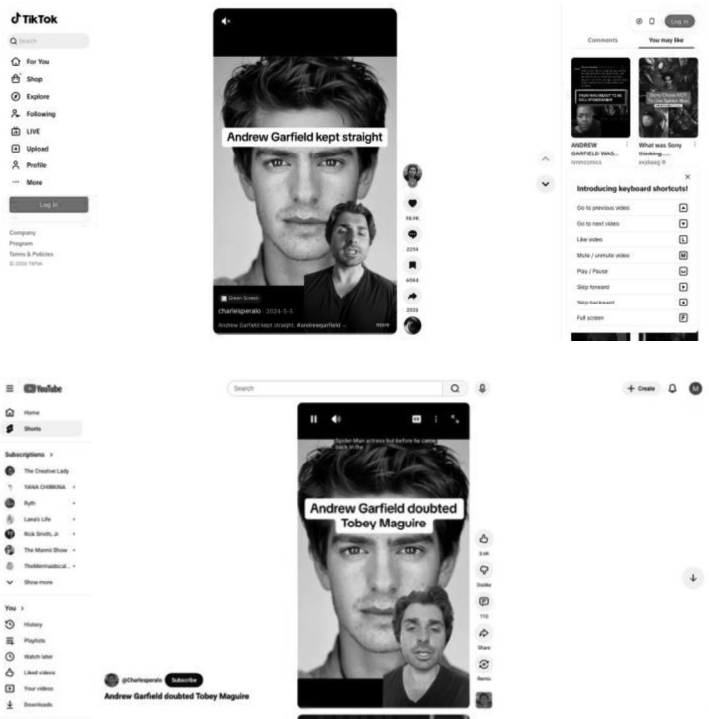

Encl.
